ANSWER OF GOVERNOR OF OHIO MIKE DEWINE, SECRETARY OF STATE FRANK LAROSE, AUDITOR OF STATE KEITH FABER, AND OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL DAVE YOST TO THE SIMON PARTIES
INTERVENOR COMPLAINT (DOC. 92).

By and through counsel, the Governor of Ohio Mike DeWine, Ohio Secretary of State Frank LaRose, Ohio Auditor of State Keith Faber, and Ohio Attorney General Dave Yost (“Statewide Officials”) respond and answer the Complaint by the “Simon Parties” Intervenor-Plaintiffs (Doc. 92) as follows:

1. The Statewide Officials admit the allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of the Complaint. Further answering, Article XI of the Ohio Constitution speaks for itself.
2. As to Paragraph 2 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the transcript of the August 23, 2021 Ohio Redistricting Commission meeting speaks for itself.
3. As to Paragraph 3 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Ohio Redistricting Commission has passed four general assembly plans and two congressional district plans. Further answering, the Statewide Officials admit that three general assembly plans and the first congressional district plan have been invalidated by the Ohio Supreme Court. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.

4. As to Paragraph 4 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Simon Parties bring this challenge. The Statewide Officials deny the remaining allegations contained therein and deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. Further answering, Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speaks for itself.

5. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 of the Complaint.

6. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 6 of the Complaint and further deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. Further answering, the cited documents speak for themselves.

7. Paragraph 7 of the Complaint is a legal conclusion to which no response is required. Further answering, Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533 (1964), speaks for itself.

8. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint and further deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. Further answering, Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speaks for itself.

9. As to Paragraph 9 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Simon Parties seek an injunction. The Statewide Officials deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to an injunction and all other demanded relief.

10. As to Paragraph 10 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Simon Parties are registered Black voters in Mahoning County, Ohio. The Statewide Officials deny that the Simon Parties are “successor representatives” or “a class” as defined by applicable law. Further answering, Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speaks for itself.

11. Paragraph 11 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, the Statewide Officials deny same and further deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. Further answering, the cited statutes and case law speak for themselves.

12. The Statewide Officials admit the allegations contained in Paragraph 12 of the Complaint. Further answering, 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) speaks for itself.

13. Paragraph 13 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. Further answering, the Voting Rights Act speaks for itself.

14. As to Paragraph 14 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether Plaintiffs currently reside in “the 6th U.S. Congressional District.” The Statewide Officials admit that Plaintiffs bring this challenge. The Statewide Officials deny the remaining allegations contained therein and also deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief.

15. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 of the Complaint. Further answering, the Voting Rights Act, the Fifteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speak for themselves.

16. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 16 of the Complaint. Further answering, the Voting Rights Act and Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speak for themselves.

17. As to Paragraph 17 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the transcripts of the Ohio Redistricting Commission meetings speak for themselves. The Statewide Officials deny the remaining allegations contained therein.

18. The Statewide Officials deny the interpretation contained in Paragraph 18 of the Complaint. The Statewide Officials admit that the transcripts of the Ohio Redistricting Commission meetings speak for themselves.

19. The Statewide Officials lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 19 of the Complaint. The Statewide Officials deny that the Simon Parties are “successor representatives” or a “class” as defined by applicable law and also deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. Further answering, Armour, et al. v. The State of Ohio, 775 F. Supp 144 (N.D. Ohio 1991), speaks for itself.

20. The Statewide Officials lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 20 of the Complaint. Further answering, Youngblood v. Board of Mahoning County Commissioners, No. 4:19-cv-0231, (N.D. Ohio 2019), speaks for itself.

21. The Statewide Officials lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 21 of the Complaint.

22. As to Paragraph 22 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Simon Parties bring this challenge. The Statewide Officials deny the remaining allegations contained therein and also deny that the Simon Parties are entitled to relief. The Statewide Officials further deny any responsibility for the use of at-large elections in Mahoning County.

23. As to Paragraph 23 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Governor, Secretary, and Auditor, in their official capacities as members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, voted to approve three general assembly plans, although the Auditor voted against the Third Plan, and the second congressional district plan. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.

24. As to Paragraph 24 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that Mike DeWine is the Governor of Ohio, that as a member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, he voted to approve three 2022 general assembly plans and the second 2022 congressional district plan. The Statewide Officials deny that Governor DeWine voted to approve “the invalid Congressional Plan” and further deny that Governor DeWine is liable in his personal and official capacity.

25. As to Paragraph 25 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that LaRose is the Ohio Secretary of State, is a member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, and is Ohio’s chief election officer. The Statewide Officials admit that LaRose voted to approve three 2022 general assembly plans and the second 2022 congressional district plan. The Statewide Officials deny that Secretary LaRose voted to approve “the invalid Congressional Plan” and further deny that Secretary LaRose is liable in his personal and official capacity. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied. Further answering, Ohio Rev. Code § 3501.04 speaks for itself.

26. As to Paragraph 26 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials deny that Speaker Cupp approved “the acts challenged” and further deny that Speaker Cupp is liable in his personal and official capacity. The remaining allegations contained therein are admitted.

27. As to Paragraph 27 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials deny that President Huffman approved the Congressional Plan challenged and further deny that President Huffman is liable in his personal and official capacity. The remaining allegations contained therein are admitted.

28. As to Paragraph 28 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Ohio Redistricting Commission is made up of seven members and that only five are sued. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied and it is also denied that the five Ohio Redistricting Commission members sued are liable in their personal and official capacities.

29. As to Paragraph 29 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the Democratic Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission were not sued. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.

30. The Statewide Officials acknowledge that the Attorney General was sued. They deny that the Attorney General is liable or that he is a necessary party.

31. The Statewide Officials reassert their responses above as though fully asserted herein.

32. The Statewide Officials deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 32 of the Complaint.

33. Paragraph 33 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. Further answering, the cited case law and statute speak for themselves.

34. Paragraph 34 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required.

35. Paragraph 35 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. The cited case speaks for itself. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.

36. As to Paragraph 36 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials lack knowledge to admit or deny whether a Black candidate has never been elected to a Mahoning County office. As to the allegations concerning testimony at Ohio Redistricting Commission meetings, transcripts of those meetings speak for themselves, as does the cited case. The Statewide Officials admit that Plaintiffs commenced an action in the Northern District of Ohio and thereafter voluntarily dismissed their action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.

37. The Statewide Officials admit the allegations contained in Paragraph 37 of the Complaint.

38. As to Paragraph 38 of the Complaint, the Statewide Officials admit that the 2020 decennial census is used for Ohio's congressional and general assembly plans. The remaining allegations contained therein are denied.
